

A Little Faith

by Ali Matthews (c) 2010

I know that I'm proud
Sometimes I get loud
I'm a lamb, I'm a lion
A fool who keeps trying
To stand out from the crowd

When the angels come around
I've gotta wrestle them down
Whenever I'm falling
I know that you're calling
But I don't hear a sound

Chorus: God only knows the grace I require
To walk through the door today to walk through the fire
God only knows the love it would take
For this rock-solid heart to finally break

I know that you came
For the sinners and saints
For the lost and the calloused
You hung in the balance
And whispered our names

I can't understand the scars on your hands with a love ever-burning you love with a yearning
To know who I am

Chorus

Bridge: You are holy and you are all that is true
And with all I know...I know nothing of all the wonder of you

Repeat Chorus
Repeat Bridge
Repeat verse one
